Manufacturing Expert Intern

About Orderfox

Orderfox.com is a dynamically growing B2B platform for buyers and suppliers in the CNC industry. Our features offer the community the right tools for their daily work. Highly motivated colleagues, flat hierarchies, and quick decision-making are our formula for success.

Our vision: To become the world's most relevant platform for the CNC industry.

About the Internship

We are growing all of our teams and looking for people who share our values, deliver innovation frequently, and join us in our mission to make Orderfox the single best marketplace for the CNC industry.

This role is both strategic and hands-on and calls for a combination of customer obsession, savvy analytics, critical thinking, and strong execution. You will have to think creatively to find ways to continuously improve Orderfox.

This 3 - 6 months internship is an ideal way to gain the work experience to launch your career. From the start of your internship, you'll be right at the heart of the business, taking part in the day-to-day operations.

What you'll be doing

- Get your hands dirty in a broad range of business challenges of a B2B marketplace startup
- Assist in the delivery of multiple transformational business development initiatives focused on process and operational improvements
- Assist in the design of solutions that make our systems and processes more efficient, scalable and deliver the highest level of quality to Orderfox
- Freedom to operate and engage: shape your role and dive into topics that you personally find appealing
- Develop your skills and gain experience across different functions through the collaborative nature of your responsibilities
- Career development possible in a broad array of functional roles, depending on your interests and talent

About You

- Strong desire to execute, drive impact, and demonstrate vitality with projects big and small
- Prior experience in supply chain, business operations, or strategy
- Be able to commit to at least a 12 week full-time internship
- Comfort operating independently in a constantly evolving environment and with multiple teams relying on your work
- English proficiency, German skills are a plus

What's in for you

- Work with and learn from exceptionally talented and experienced co-workers
- Room for challenging tasks with a mix of support and independence

- Opportunity to join us long term after successful completion of internship
- Top-notch hardware to allow you to focus on your job
- A beautiful office, located right in the heart of Zurich City - Just steps away from the lake and less than 10 minutes walking distance from Stadelhofen Train Station
- Free coffee, mineral water, fresh fruit and cold beer
- We believe in ownership from day one - We empower you to take responsibility and encourage you to act on your ideas

Our Team

Our team consists of Creators, Thinkers and Doers. We constantly push ourselves to be our best, we challenge our ideas of what's possible and we inspire each other to make an impact through our talents, passion and hard work.

Join us!

If you are driven to bring Orderfox.com to the next level, curious about the opportunity and want to be part of our growing team send us your resume and a few words of why you want to join us. We are looking forward to getting to know you!
